

 = $2.05
1 Drink In economic costs

 807  per person

Excessive Drinking is Draining the U.S. Economy

The Cost of Excessive Alcohol Use Per Capita In 2010 ($)

The cost of excessive drinking in the U.S. reached $249 billion in 2010, or $807 per person or $2.05 per drink.

Good example:
Utah has the lowest cost on excessive drinking: $592 per person.

Alaska is the state with the most cost on excessive drinking. It cost $1165 per person!!!

D.C. has the highest cost of excessive drinking per capita:
$1526!!!

Excessive drinking costs a lot in the west: Wyoming,
Colorado, and New Mexico all have costs over 940$!!!

*Alaska & Hawaii insets not to scale